

Call for papers and participation

Third SANEM-World Bank North America Discussion Forum 2019

“Emerging Global Challenges and Development Strategies in South Asia”

Date: July 12, 2019

Venue: The World Bank, Washington, D.C., USA.

South Asian Network on Economic Modeling \(SANEM\), a leading think-tank of South Asia, announces the competitive call for papers and participation for the “Third SANEM-World Bank North America Discussion Forum 2019” to be jointly organized by SANEM and the World Bank Group on July 12, 2019 at the World Bank premises in Washington, D.C., USA. SANEM proudly announces the success of The First SANEM-World Bank North America Discussion Forum held on June 12, 2017, in Washington DC, USA, and The Second SANEM-World Bank North America Discussion Forum held on September 7, 2018, in Washington DC, USA.

The core objective of this event is to promote quality economic research among academicians, policy advocates, researchers, students and young aspiring economists living in the North American region as well as in other parts of the globe. Through this event, SANEM sets its footprint on the North American region.

Themes:

Papers should be relevant to any of the following themes:

- Emerging challenges in global trade and implications for South Asia
- Challenges of financing inclusive development in South Asia
- Structural transformation in South Asia
- Challenges for industrialization in South Asia
- Labor market, employment and demographic challenges in South Asia
- Macroeconomic policies in South Asia in the context of emerging global challenges
- Social policies in South Asia in the context of emerging global challenges
- Environment policies in South Asia in the context of emerging global challenges

Important Dates:

- Last date of abstract submission : April 10, 2019
- Selection of abstracts : April 15, 2019
- Last date of paper submission : June 15, 2019

Format of the Abstract:

The abstract should be an extended one that will include the objectives, the research questions, a brief description of the methodology and an outline of the paper.

Submission of the Abstract:

The abstract with an updated CV should be sent to sanem.conference@gmail.com

Registration for Participation:

Interested participants are requested to apply for registration through this google form. The last date to register is June 25, 2019

<https://goo.gl/forms/Mbbrfg2dQTaIC43Q2>

Funding:

There is limited scope for small partial funding for selected paper presenters.